For graduation with a Certificate of Achievement, Gender and Sexuality Studies:

- Complete each of the REQUIRED COURSES listed above with a minimum grade of "C" and a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5.
- Complete fifty percent (50%) or more of the unit requirements for this field of concentration in residence; this means at least 9 units of the required 18 must be completed at Long Beach City College. Credit earned by exam, where applicable, may be included.
- Complete and submit the certificate application form to the Admissions and Records office during your final semester of course work. These forms are available in the Admissions and Records office, or online at <http://admissions.lbcc.edu/>. Refer to the Schedule of Classes (<http://schedule.lbcc.edu>) and click the "Important Dates" link to view the actual deadline for each semester.

Program Goal and Outcomes

The Long Beach City College Gender and Sexuality Certificate of Achievement is designed to teach the fundamentals of theory and knowledge relevant to gender and sexuality. The program will prepare students to be more aware of systemic power structures and how to promote inclusivity and equity within those structures. Some courses may be double counted to fulfill general education area requirements that will aid in transfer. Students can earn this certificate by completing the 18 units of required course work in the various fields listed on the certificate.

Outcomes:

- Identify and synthesize the theoretical and practical knowledge of gender and sexuality studies in various social sciences areas, history, and health education.
