Pacific Coast Campus
Building JJ - Tenant Improvements for Electrical & Alternative Fuels Departments

DESCRIPTION:

The project includes continued repurposing of the northern portion of Building JJ for the ongoing growth of the Advanced Transportation Technology (ATT) Department. Improvements include a new computer lab, smart classrooms, and an expanded working garage lab space, as well as a working solar array system used in conjunction with the Electrical Department to power electric vehicles.