San Jose State University, Los Angeles City College, San Diego State University, Long Beach City College, East Los Angeles College, City College of San Francisco and the European Studies Association [ESA] invite you to participate in an exceptional educational experience: Summer Study in Paris 2015.

Since the Middle Ages, Paris has drawn students from around the world for university studies and for the experience of its cosmopolitan lifestyle. Celebrating our thirty-eight annual program, we have the faculty, the background and the willingness to make your month in Paris worthy of one of the world's great capital cities. In addition to classes, you will have the opportunity to improve your knowledge of French culture through our special civilization course. This course includes visits to the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay and historic neighborhoods. On weekends we will also visit the Loire Valley chateaux country and the historic city of Rouen. We won't neglect daily life in Paris either. Additional activities include Versailles, gourmet dinners, Monet's gardens, contemporary street art tours and more! In addition to a complete orientation program, we offer visits to historic districts, such as St. Germain des Prés and the Marais, and Paris' organic market. Our program is varied and extensive; in fact, the problem may be deciding which courses and activities to choose!

The Institut Catholique de Paris

The Institut Catholique de Paris, a private French university of international reputation, will provide your French language instruction. Universities world-wide recognize and regularly grant credit for its excellent language courses. The Institut is located in the St. Germain des Prés area in central Paris, very near our dorm sites. There you will meet students from around the world, who, like you, have come to Paris to take advantage of the Institut's fine teachers, up-to-date materials, and small classes. Like many private universities in the US, the Institut has a religious affiliation, but instruction is non-sectarian. ESA, the largest group at the Institut summer session, will handle pre-enrollment formalities. A placement test will determine which course level is most appropriate for you.

Institut Catholique Courses
(highly recommended for intermediate and advanced students)

I. French language courses, elementary to advanced:
15 hours per week [3–5 semester units]†
These classes offer high quality language instruction in conversation, grammar, culture and reading. Classes average 20-25 students and use up-to-date materials.

II. Teaching French as a Foreign Language:
15 hours per week [3–5 semester units]†
This course is designed for teachers of French and includes methodology, contemporary culture, lectures on literature and art history, stylistics and the teaching of phonetics.

† Credits are given as a guideline only—see academic credit section.
ESA FACULTY
The program is led by Dr. Tom Blair, Dr. Terri Nelson, Prof. J. Vincent Morissette, Dr. Marie-Laure Hinton, Dr. Lynn Vogel-Zuiderweg, Prof. Francine Rozenkopf and Mr. Philippe Kreiter. Dr. Blair has been the director of ESA for over thirty years. Dr. Hinton, Professor of French and Spanish at Long Beach City College, is a native of France and has led students to Paris several times in the past. She is the recipient of several teaching awards and directs the French Club. Recipient of the CLTA outstanding teacher award, Prof. Morissette is a faculty member at Fairfield University. Dr. Nelson, a Professor at California State University, San Bernardino, is also the recipient of several teaching awards. Dr. Vogel-Zuiderweg is currently full-time faculty at East Los Angeles College, where she teaches both French and Spanish. Prof. Rebecca Ebin has taught French for a number of years at East Los Angeles College and taught in the Paris session for ELAC for five years. Prof. Rozenkopf has taught French at LA C C, Santa Monica College and UCLA for many years. Having spent a part of his childhood and youth in France, Mr. Kreiter teaches French and Spanish at Central Catholic High School, Portland, Oregon, where he also moderates the Latino Student Union.

ACCOMMODATIONS
Students stay in one of several well-located dorms in the St. Germain des Prés area of Paris. Each dorm has comfortable public areas—lounge, TV room, student kitchen, library, etc. To suit your tastes, each dorm provides either daily breakfast and dinner or breakfast only. More detailed descriptions will be sent on enrollment so that you may select the dorm you prefer—apply early for maximum choice. Single rooms are available at a supplement. A limited number of accommodations with French families are also available.

MEALS
ESA helps students suit their eating tastes. Continental breakfast is provided at the dorm or with the family. Somedorms also provide weeknight dinners. You may also take advantage of the dorm kitchen. In our student guide, Paris pratique, we recommend a variety of restaurants to suit budgets and tastes.

TRANSPORTATION
ESA has arranged a group flight on Lufthansa Airlines to Paris. Students taking the designated flights receive transfers to the dorm center at no charge. Students may choose to make other arrangements, but they are then responsible for arranging transportation to the dorm.

ACADEMIC CREDIT
Various options for academic credit are available for an additional fee, depending on the institution granting credit and the number of units taken. Information may be found on the program website, esaparis.org, and is distributed at program orientation meetings. This US enrollment must be completed before departure, and submitted no later than June 1. Late return of required documents and photos may incur a late fee of $100.

APPLICATION & PAYMENT
ESA encourages early application as the number of places in the program is limited to about 75 participants. The application period will begin Nov. 1, 2014. Last year the program was full in mid-March. In addition, early application will better permit you to plan for the trip. All applications must be received by May 25, 2015. Payments may be made by check, money order or credit card [VISA, MC or Amex]. Students who apply and pay all fees by March 1, 2015, are entitled to a 2% early payment reduction. To apply, complete the application section below (or online) and mail your deposit check or credit card information for $300 payable to ESA, 424 Dorado Terrace, SF, CA 94112. The balance of the fee is due April 1, 2015. Payments made after May 25 will be assessed a late fee of $250 and must be made by cashier’s check, travelers check or credit card. All prices reflect exchange rates in effect at the time of publication (Sept. 2014) and are subject to change.

MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY
All persons interested in participating in a study program are invited to enroll with ESA. Minimum age is 17. ESA does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, age or gender in any of its practices. The ESA program is designed for people without mobility impairment because of the restrictions placed upon us by the foreign locale.

FRENCH LANGUAGE

All ESA participants may attend the following courses according to your interests:

ESA CIVILIZATION COURSES

ESA has designed the following courses to help you make the most of your time in Paris. ESA students are welcome to participate in all activities. (Because of the numerous activities in the program, there may be some course/activity conflicts.) There is no additional charge for the following:

French Civilization—Origins to the Present

An historical survey of the relationship between French political life, social structure, art, architecture and urbanism in the Middle Ages, Renaissance, 17th Century, Enlightenment, Revolution and modern period. Special emphasis on Paris as the center of French civilization. Approximately 12 hours of lecture plus guided visits in and around Paris. For example, lecture on medieval Paris followed by visits to Notre Dame and the Sainte Chapelle. See calendar for list of visits. Offered in both French and English; some visits in English only.

Contemporary French Culture

Orientation to daily life in the French capital. Practical visits, information on food, music, etc.

Seminar in French Theater

Intensive reading, analysis and discussion of a classic or modern French play. Students will then attend a performance of the play studied. French only. Prerequisite: 2 years of college French or equivalent.
Insurance
ESA participants are obliged to cover themselves against the cost of medical treatment abroad. They can do this by taking out a travel insurance policy (samples on the ESA website). You may use your own insurance, but it must be listed on your program contract. Additional trip insurance is recommended—please see website.

The Program Fee Includes:
Tuition at the Institut Catholique de Paris or Survival French course, per your selection; accommodation and meal plan selected; special courses and lectures organized by ESA; two ticketed cultural activities; all ESA excursions including transportation and accommodation; Institut certificate; museum/monument entry fees on ESA excursions; bus/metro pass for Paris; international student ID and Paris welcome packet.

The Program Fee Does NOT Include:
Transportation to and from the program, independent travel; personal items: passport, visas, textbooks, laundry; medical, accident, baggage loss, personal liability, trip cancellation insurance [see insurance section above]; lunches, dinners in some dorms; US university/college tuition.

Refunds:
Anyone whose application cannot be accepted will have all payments refunded. Refund requests postmarked before April 1, 2015, are subject to a $100 cancellation fee. Cancellations postmarked April 1 to May 14, 2015, will be subject to a $300 cancellation fee.

I have read the brochure for the Summer Study in Paris 2015 program and wish to apply. I agree to the payment and refund schedule as indicated in the brochure. /2015/

COMMENTS FROM PREVIOUS PARTICIPANTS

“Thank you for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity... In one month's time, we saw a great majority of the important sights of Paris. It was incredible!”

“A wonderful experience! I highly recommend the program. Something for everyone.”

“Getting out into the neighborhoods helps a lot after the lectures. It makes Paris history come alive.”

“C'est la cinquième fois que je suis à Paris et c'est la meilleure. Le programme est merveilleux.”

“This was a very worthwhile experience. I feel that I know my way around Paris and have learned about the history and culture. When I added up all that was included in the price—room, breakfast, tours, metro tickets, etc.—my reaction was ‘WOW! Best bang for the bucks!’ It was great!”

“The major strength of the program was the clear desire of the faculty to make the program enjoyable, comprehensive, and a level above what one would expect from a more commercial venture. The residence and Institute were excellent choices, both relatively small and personal.”
