

FAQ

What classes does the Honors Program offer?

Honors classes are general education classes.

What is the difference between AGS, PTK, and the Honors Program?

AGS and PTK are honors societies. To find out more about either club, contact Student Life. The Honors Program is an academic program.

Do all of the general education classes have an Honors section?

No, only selected classes. Most Honors classes transfer to UC and fulfill requirements for Plans A, B, and C.

Is every class offered every semester?

No, not all Honors classes are offered every semester. But most Honors classes are offered on a regular cycle. Honors classes offered during the fall semester one year are likely to be offered the next fall semester, and Honors classes offered during the spring semester are likely to be offered the next spring semester. Refer to the Schedule of Classes for specific offerings.

Are there any summer or winter classes?

There are no winter classes. In recent years, MUSIC 40H has been offered in the summer.

Are there any evening classes?

Some classes are offered in the evening.

Are there any classes at PCC?

Sometimes a class is offered at PCC.

Are there any online classes?

No, we don't have any online classes.

Can I take the Honors section of a regular class that I already completed?

No, the school won't allow it. For example, if you already took English 1, then you can't take English 1H.

What is the class size of Honors classes?

An Honors class has between 13 and 24 students.

If I decide that the Honors Program is not for me, can I change my mind without being penalized?

Yes. Just let us know. The only “penalty” is that you will not be enrolled in Honors courses.

What if I can't complete five Honors classes?

You must complete five Honors courses with a 3.0 GPA in order to be certified as having completed the Honors Program, but if you are unable to complete five Honors courses, you will still have Honors designation on your transcript for each Honors course that you complete. You have access to all Honors privileges as long as you remain active in the program.

Can I skip a semester and not take an Honors class?

It is a program requirement that you take an Honors class each semester. If for some reason you can't, then you must consult with the Honors Program Coordinator in order to qualify for a one-time waiver.

Once I complete my five Honors classes, am I still in the Honors Program?

As long as you are attending LBCC, you are considered part of the Honors Program.

Can I take more than five Honors classes?

Yes, you can take as many Honors classes as you want.

How many Honors classes can I take each semester?

We recommend no more than two Honors classes, but you can take as many as you want.

Do I have to be a full-time student?

No, you don't need to be a full-time student.

Do you cap the number of students you admit to the Honors Program?

No, we don't.

Do I need to apply each semester?

No, once you are accepted into the program, you don't need to apply each semester to stay in the program.
