

Emergency Room Treatment

STOP? or
GO?

A guide to help you know.

STOP

- Colds, cough, sore throat
- Urinary tract infection
- Earache
- Minor cut where bleeding is controlled
- Possible muscle or ligament strain
- Sunburn or minor cooking burn
- Bee or insect sting or delayed swelling (unless breathing is difficult)
- Rash
- Fever/Flu (unless severely dehydrated)
- Sexually transmitted disease

GO

- Loss of consciousness
- Intolerable, uncontrollable pain
- Severe shortage of breath
- Chest pain or pressure
- Poisoning
- Major injury, such as a head injury
- Severe or worsening reaction to insect bite, sting or medication especially if breathing is difficult.
- Stupor, drowsiness or disorientation that cannot be explained

MyNurse 24/7
SIMPLY CARING™

STUDENT
INSURANCE
Since 1950

www.studentinsuranceusa.com
call us at 1-800-367-5830

CA Lic. #0386216

● Still not sure, call MyNurse 24/7 at 1-866-549-5076. The call is free.