

2010. ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS ON THE ROLE OF STUDENTS IN SHARED GOVERNANCE

2010.1 Responsibilities

The Superintendent-President shall administer these regulations.

2010.2 Areas in Which the Board of Trustees Will Provide the Opportunity for Students to Participate

- A. Grading policies
- B. Codes of student conduct
- C. Academic disciplinary policies
- D. Curriculum development
- E. Courses or programs which are to be initiated or discontinued
- F. Processes for institutional planning and budget development
- G. Standards and policies regarding student preparation and success
- H. Student Services planning and development
- I. Student fees within the authority of the Board of Trustees
- J. Any other policy, procedure, or related matter that the Board of Trustees determines will have a significant effect on students

If, after student participation has occurred in the formulation and development of policies and procedures that have or will have a significant effect on students and the decision of the Board differs from the input provided by the student(s), the Board of Trustees or the Superintendent-President, as the Board's designee, shall communicate the rationale for the decision-making process upon the request of the Associated Student Body Cabinet.

2010.3 The Associated Student Body Cabinet's Right to Communicate with the Board of Trustees

The Associated Student Body Cabinet shall have the right to communicate with the Board of Trustees on any matter it feels has or will have a significant effect on students. This communication will take place through the Student Representative to the Board of Trustees, who shall serve as the official liaison for the Associated Student Body Cabinet.

2010.4 Appointment of Students to Committees

Committee chairs may make recommendations and/or requests for students to serve on college-wide committees, self-study committees, ad hoc committees, councils or task forces through the Associated Student Body President. The Associated Student Body Cabinet shall retain the right to final appointment of students to serve on committees where shared governance matters are involved.
