1. How did your child participate in the food preparation process? What did your child do to help out as you cooked together? Did he/she enjoy the experience?

2. What are your responses to the cooking experience with your child? Would you attempt the experience again? What do you think your child learned from this cooking experience?

3. Tell us about some foods that your child has tasted recently and seems to enjoy. Have you noticed anything in particular that he/she enjoys about certain foods (such as color, texture, taste or even presentation of food)?
