ORDERING OF THE AGENDA
Update on Women in the Trades

Member Uranga: First of all, I want to thank the students who are here this evening. I brought this question up last month at a Board meeting and the reason you’re here is because I participated in a couple of career fairs for the WINTER program, when I was recruitment officer for the City of Long Beach, and I thought it was a great program at that time. I wasn’t fully aware of the breadth, width and depth of what you had to offer in that class. Some of my Board members may have had exposure to the program, but I had not and this was an opportunity for me to get an update and I thought this would be an excellent opportunity to learn about what we’re doing, and what kind of progress we are making. It’s always going to be progress and we can’t regress. So, thank you for being here.

Farley Herzek: Good evening. A few weeks ago during our City TEACH presentation, Trustee Uranga posed a question as to, as he just said, “What are we doing to recruit more women in the trades.” Let me just go back to that City TEACH presentation for a moment. I just want to let everybody know this evening that this Saturday, the California Community College League will be presenting our City TEACH program with an outstanding program award.

As far as what we are doing to recruit more women in the trades area, we’re very proud to let you know that we have been deeply involved in recruiting women into our trades and industrial technologies program. This year here at Long Beach City College we developed and introduced a new class that was approved by our Curriculum Committee called, of course, “Women in the Trades.” This class for women is open to all students and this class introduces students to a variety of trade and technical areas. This class was so well received that we have started to take this class on the road and we’ll be letting you know exactly where this class is going to be offered out in the community.

At this time, I would like to introduce the creator and teacher of this class, Dr. Lynn Shaw. Lynn is a full-time faculty member here at Long Beach City College in our electrical department and she was the former Executive Director of WINTER, which is “Women in Non-Traditional Employment Roles.”

Dr. Lynn Shaw talked about her class “Women Exploring Nontraditional Careers” and introduced five of her students who spoke about their positive experiences in the class. (applause)

Also, Mr. Larry Janek, Training Director of the Long Beach Job Corps spoke about the training and jobs that are available to women.

President Clark: Let me ask you, what relationship do you have with the unions?

Lynn Shaw: I'm a member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and I've been a miner, a steelworker and a longshore worker, and I've been in all those unions also. I work very closely with the Building Trades Council, both on the local level and the statewide level. I'm also on the Subject Matter Expert Committee writing the electrical certification exam that's going to be given all electricians in the State of California. I'd say I work with union and nonunion, but I think unions offer maybe better opportunities for women; so, if a woman asks me, that's what I would say.

President Clark: Are the unions open to women? Because I know sometimes it’s difficult, not only for women, but just to get into unions.

Lynn Shaw: Let me say that unions are more open than ever. I wrote my dissertation on this subject so I have a lot to say about it. But, let's just say the proof is in the numbers; so they maybe make good faith efforts, but they don't have good faith results. The percentage of women who are electricians is 1.9%; the percentage of women in all the skilled trades is 2%; the percentage of women in all nontraditional jobs is 7%; so I'd say we have a lot of work to do.

President Clark: Could we do anything to help you with unions? A resolution or something?

Lynn Shaw: Can I think on that? Because I'd like to politically really strategize about that and maybe talk to some of my contacts, but I love that idea. Thank you very much.

Member Thorpe: I’d just like to comment that, as you know the union movement in this country was started by women -- the International Garment Union Workers in New York, so you can, with pride, take over the movement. And, of course, I have never known jobs not to be out there when you pay for them and we’ve got to pay women more, too.

Vice President Uranga: How long are the participants allowed to stay in the program, or how long is the program?

Lynn Shaw: This class is a one-unit experimental class. It's got a 298 number, so it's 18 hours and then what I try to do is get them to look at different jobs and if they need more training or are interested in training, try to direct them to training opportunities. If they're ready to go to work, maybe go to the unions, the apprenticeship programs, or the nonunion apprenticeship programs. In the case of the Job Corps, just try to retain them in the programs they're in or maybe get them to consider not choosing clerical or medical.

Vice President Uranga: Do you have some apprenticeship programs locally that you can refer students to?

Lynn Shaw: The unions are, again, pretty open, but work is kind of slowing down. So, instead of taking 50 apprentices, they'll take 20 apprentices. But I have a pretty good relationship with the unions and it is kind of like once you become a member you are a sister and so even though I can be really irritating, because I'm the wrong gender or the wrong ethnic group, or whatever; if you're the "other," you're not as well received, but still you're in the club, so I think I have a step up in trying to recruit and advocate for my students, which is what I try to do.

Member McNinch: I am so jealous. When I was in high school, which was like the day after dirt was invented, I wanted to take woodshop. I wanted to take auto mechanics. And they said no. This was in about 1958. None of you were born then, but it's all right.
I had to take sewing and cooking. I have always loved the guy stuff. I'm fascinated with the harbor. I loved playing electrician. You women are so lucky that no one is saying to you, "No, you're not allowed. You have to cook and sew. You're not allowed to go play and have fun." And I'm very jealous and very envious of you. Please continue to let us know how well you are doing.

President Clark: I couldn’t get into Home Economics. (laughter) Thank you very much for coming. (applause)

Rejection of Claim

Reject the claim presented by attorney Jubin Sharifi on behalf of his client, Bobbie Norman, with regard to an incident that occurred at the Liberal Arts Campus on September 17, 2001.

It was moved by Member McNinch, seconded by Member Polsky, that the items on the Consent Agenda, except for Item 5.2, be approved and authorized.
The motion carried, all voting aye.

Member Thorpe: 5.2, I was just wondering when I looked at the heading on the first sheet on this, I saw there were terminations with a broad line beneath it and I think we’ve used this for a long time. Is that mandatory, or could that be a word like “Separations” or something, because it indicates, in other words, a disciplinary step, which is not the case. I just wanted to bring it up because I’m not sure that expresses what we want to.

President Clark: Just the heading?

Member Thorpe: Just the heading “Termination,” because if you had “Separation,” then you could have retirements and terminations under it.

Superintendent-President Kehoe: We can change our own agenda. If you'd like to change that heading - I think it's been that way for some years - we'd be happy to put “Separations” if that's the Board's wish.

It was moved by Member Thorpe, seconded by Member Polsky, that Item 5.2 on the Consent Agenda be approved and authorized.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Ratification of District/CHI Collective Bargaining Agreement

It was moved by Member Polsky, seconded by Member Thorpe, that the Board of Trustees ratify the Tentative Agreement reached between the District and CHI. The Tentative Agreement has been ratified by Association members.

The Tentative Agreement rescinds Section 3 of the March 15, 2001, agreement between the District and CHI that provided a 2.33% salary increase effective March 1, 2001. That provision is replaced with language that approves a salary increase of 3.33% effective January 15, 2001. In addition, CHI members will be provided a salary increase of COLA plus 2.90% effective August 1, 2001. The parties will continue to negotiate non-monetary issues after January 1, 2002, when regulations related to comparable pay between hourly and full-time become available.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

Management Team Compensation Plan, 2001-2002

President Clark: On item 5.6, as you know, there was a request to withdraw items 2 and 3, and Jan and I discussed it and sent out a revised item which included items 1 and 4. So are there any discussions? There are just two items now on 5.6, the others have been taken off for further study.

It was moved by Member Uranga, seconded by Member Polsky, that the Board of Trustees approve the following compensation plan for Management Team personnel:
1. An increase to the Management Team Salary Schedule by the Community College Chancellor’s Office COLA plus two percent (2%) effective July 1, 2001; and

2. The District and Management Team will form a joint committee to evaluate and make recommendations pertaining to cost containment options related to District contributions to the Health and Welfare Benefit Program.

Member Thorpe: I do have problems with the background, second paragraph that says, “The Management Team will have further modifications…” Should that not be “may” because is it quite conceivable that they might not? I know these two studies are in progress and should be finished -- it is anticipated, that’s fine, but the “Management Team will,” is that also a directive “shall” or should that not be “may.”

Victor Collins: Member Thorpe, we already know from the Nash Study that there are specific recommendations that affect Management Team classifications so we know they will impact management team, especially in the Nash Study.

Member Thorpe: So, in other words, whatever those studies show, the district is obligated to pass or obligated to bring them back?

Vic Collins: We're not obligated to bring them back, but with the numbers and the types of recommendations that are included in the Nash Study we will bring forward to the Board recommendations for modifications. We, being H.R.

The motion carried, Members Clark, Uranga, McNinch and Polsky voting aye; Member Thorpe voting no.

SUPERINTENDENT-PRESIDENT

Academic Calendar - 2002-2003

It was moved by Member McNinch, seconded by Member Thorpe, that the Academic Calendar for 2002-2003 be approved.

President Clark: I know there have been efforts to go to the 16-week semester. Where are we on that?

Vice President Byrd: The Calendar Committee did not address that particular question. Some members of the Calendar Committee felt that it was a negotiable item and they were seeking directions from their union not to discuss going to the 16-week calendar, so as a committee we did not have discussions on the 16-week calendar.

President Clark: And that’s still on the table? We’re looking at that?

Vice President Byrd: Certainly we’re still looking at it, as well as the faculty are looking at it. I believe they have a committee from CCA formed to take a look at the impact of the 16-week calendar.

Member Thorpe: So if we pass this now, this does not obviate making the changes pursuant to further discussions.

Vice President Byrd: I’m sorry, could you repeat that?

Member Thorpe: Is this in concrete if we vote this tonight, or can it be changed pursuant to future discussions?

Vice President Byrd: The Board can change the calendar. I would suggest though that for 2002-2003, it’s not practical to try and change the calendar at this particular time because of so many other things involved - especially with our computer system - in changing the dates of the calendar. But, technically, adjustments can be made to the calendar.

Member Thorpe: So this has all been agreed to by the affected unions, and so forth, in the committee, that we see before us?

Vice President Byrd: Yes.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

Academic Calendar: Tentative 2003-2004 First Reading

The tentative 2003-2004 Academic Calendar was presented to the Board for First Reading.

Superintendent-President's Report

Superintendent-President Kehoe: I have a very short report, but I would like to report that I did attend the Economic Development Commission for the American Association of Community Colleges in Washington, and also the Licensure Subcommittee. The item dealt with ilicensure in nursing. California did not have the difficulties they have had in some other states as far as licensing community college-educated RNs. So we’re very fortunate in our relationship with our hospitals. There are some difficulties across the nation in the two-year versus the four-year RN programs. It was interesting and I was very grateful to be from the State of California in this instance.

Also, in the Economic Development Commission meeting we discussed certification and the importance of certification at all levels in our community colleges, to certify skills and skills training, particularly as our businesses and industries change and the skills are needed by the economy in order to keep businesses going. So it was a very lively and interesting discussion by delegates from all over the United States. In addition, we talked about leadership programs across the nation to educate our leaders in community colleges coming forward. We are all afraid that maybe there isn’t the kind of leadership training that we need at the beginning levels, so that was a discussion within the Economic Development Commission.

That’s the end of my report.

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Update on Women in the Trades
(See report after “Ordering of the Agenda.”)

STUDENT SUPPORT, PLANNING AND RESEARCH

Student Health Fee Increase

It was moved by Member McNinch, seconded by Member Polsky, that the Board approve the Student Health Fee increase from $10.00 to $12.00 per semester, and from $7.00 to $9.00 for summer school as submitted. Effective date for increase in fee will begin with registration for classes that start June 3, 2002.

Student Trustee Torres: I would just like to say one thing. I did talk to a bunch of students on this matter as well as the ASB Board and they were for it; AWS, AMS, a lot of the clubs talked to their Boards and everyone seems to be for it. So the students are aware of it and they are for it.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

2001-2002 Expenditure Plan for the Telecommunication and Technology Infrastructure Program (TTIP)

It was moved by Member McNinch, seconded by Member Polsky, that the Board of Trustees approve the 2001-2002 Expenditure Plan for the Telecommunication and Technology Infrastructure Program (TTIP) and authorize transmittal of the expenditure plan to the Chancellor’s Office, California Community Colleges.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

Resolution, Liability and Workers’ Compensation Coverage for Long Beach Community College District Volunteers
It was moved by Member McNinch, seconded by Member Uranga, that the Board of Trustees approve Resolution No. 111301D providing for liability and workers’ compensation coverage for Long Beach Community College District volunteers during the period July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2002.

Member Thorpe: I was just wondering whether we have been doing this all along, or is this something new that’s become available to us?

Interim Vice President Farrell: We’ve always had the liability, but we have never taken this action. We contacted ASCIP, our liability carrier, and they recommended that this be done and that this is the appropriate way to handle volunteers.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

PACIFIC COAST CAMPUS
Update on Women’s Center Activities
Anita Gibbins, Women’s Resource Center Manager, gave the following report on the Women’s Resource Center:

Update on Pacific Coast Campus
Vice President Merry: The AA wing that I talked about, the Student Services Wing, we are continuing making plans for our grand opening which will be in January and by that time our pictures will be up, and we’ll be inviting you to that.

An example of responsiveness to campus concerns is the Safety Committee that meets on a regular basis. We met recently to respond to concerns about what to do in the event of an attack. In tomorrow’s mail, faculty will receive “duck and cover” instructions that they can read to their students.

Tomorrow the School of Trades and Industry will be hosting an expected attendance of over 1000 high school students and their parents at a jointly sponsored Unified School to Career Building Careers and LBCC Building Careers event. And we hope that you will come back. It’s 6 to 8 p.m. tomorrow evening.

The Middle College is doing well with 50 students and we’re looking to have more students in the spring.
The Long Beach Community Services Development Corporation’s charter school began its second semester with us. We gave them a well-rounded orientation introducing the students to the campus and the many offerings they can avail themselves of. The students - most in their 20s and 30s, are working on their GEDs.

We will be inaugurating a designated smoking area near the flagpole with a big no smoking kick-off. We had hoped to connect the event with the Great American Smoke-Out which is on the 15th, but we won’t have the signs until next week. When the signs do arrive and are posted, we will make a big deal of no smoking. The Student Health Office will be one of the lead sponsors.

Bids for electrical lights in horticulture have gone out. New lights will make it better to conduct evening events there.

The community is encouraged to hold appropriate events here and many have responded to our invitation. Two weeks ago we had a big Fathers Conference here and Laura Richardson-Batts has held numerous meetings on the campus. And today I met with another off-campus group that wants to use the facility. Any time we can get community members here is a benefit to them and us as well. Our custodial staff does a great job moving tables and chairs to accommodate our visitors.

That is just a sample of some of the things that we do that makes PCC such a special place, and I haven’t even mentioned the great teaching.

ACADEMIC SENATE

No Report

CLASSIFIED SENATE

Jacquie Lang Wilvers: Since the Classified Senate President is not able to be here this evening, I will offer a brief report in her absence.

- We are up and running with full placement of classified representatives on each of the appropriate Shared Governance committees. Those members are reporting back to the Senate as each committee makes progress. Also, we have almost full placement on the Accreditation Self-Study committees.

- We are happy to announce the presentation of two classified staff development workshops, one this semester and one next semester focusing on Interpersonal Communication and Conflict Management skills. These workshops will be presented by a Human Resources consultant who conducted training for classified last semester which was very successful. We hope these workshops will be beneficial to classified employees in the area of professional growth.

- We are currently developing training workshops for Shared Governance and for the Planning process at LBCC.
• We are very pleased that the LBCC Professional Growth program for classified has been expanded to include not only those pursuing a bachelor's degree, but also those interested in getting a master's degree. We have many classified employees participating in the program.

That concludes my report. Thank you.

TRUSTEES COMMUNICATIONS
Member Thorpe: I have two things. I’ll pass these out. They are simply copies, and I don’t see a Viking reporter here. This is the first time I’ve seen this in the students’ newspaper. They’re bringing themselves right up along side the big professional newspapers; when they make a gaff, they made an apology to the student club and I think their reporting in the last several months has been very informative, at least for me, and I hope they keep it up, and I hope I don’t make them mad after I’ve congratulated them.

The second thing I would like to say is that we enjoyed the Veterans Parade last Saturday. Again, it was an extremely well attended parade. You couldn’t find parking within a half mile, but I’ll let Chairman Clark and Member Uranga talk about that. But, at any rate, it’s now becoming a huge parade in North Long Beach and it’s one of the few bright spots in terms of parades that they have. I was glad our college participated and I enjoyed myself.

President Clark: It was a very good parade.
