Committee Reports
Member Thorpe: President Clark and Members. This was my memorandum to the last meeting of the Budget Advisory Committee on March 7, 2002. This was given to the committee as my recommendation as to what I felt the District should be doing before it lets any of the bonds, under the so-called Propostion 39 bonds, and Mr. Farrell will probably be telling us what they should be termed later this evening; so I’ll pass these out to you and that ends my report.

STUDENT TRUSTEE
Angelica Torres: Good evening. There have been a few outstanding events held over these past few weeks. The Mayoral Debate, hosted by the Student Senate allowed the mayoral candidates to address their platform and their plans for the future of Long Beach. Female students and Barbara Sorenson, a faculty member of Long Beach City College, performed the Vagina Monologues. The monologues were put on by the Associated Women Students and offered an insight to the mysteries and the complexity of women.

Currently the Associated Student Body is accepting applications for the upcoming election of the fall 2002 officers.

The Athletics Department is considering establishing an “athlete of every two weeks” program. Students will be nominated on the basis of demonstrating excellence in both academics and athletics.

This Thursday, the Associated Men Students will have the ever so popular Mini Grand Prix at LAC from 9 am – 1pm. The Pacific Coast Campus Office of Student Life will host their ever so popular Mini-Mini Grand Prix from 10:15am-1pm. Both events promise to be a lot of fun so please come and join us at either campus for a fun-filled event.

This past Friday, I served on the Advisory Committee on Education Services for the Community College League of California. It was an opportunity to voice some of the issues that I feel affect students and community colleges as a whole. I offered suggestions on improving various programs that will aid in diminishing issues that affect our students and our colleges.

PUBLIC COMMENTS ON AGENDA ITEMS
President Clark: At their request, members of the public may address the Board of Trustees on any item prior to or during the Board's consideration of that item. A five (5) minute time limit will be allotted to each speaker, with a maximum of twenty minutes for each subject, unless extended by the Board President.

President Clark: We have one request for Public Comments on Item 5.3, Shannon Willson.

Shannon Willson: Good evening, Board of Trustees and all of those in attendance. I'm addressing Agenda Item 5.3, which is the Resolution for Reduction of Classified Service, 2001-2002. I would first like to thank John Tortarolo, take this opportunity to thank him, I don't, oh, he is here, and that's for the admirable job he is doing in handling this proposed layoff. There are several reasons I say that this admirable, and the first is that he sent letters out to all the potentially affected employees and invited them to an information meeting and outlined all the general aspects of the layoff procedure, how it would impact them, told them that he would make every effort to secure positions for these employees, and he'll be sending out a letter, after this Board meeting, outlining their specific rights under the contract with regard to the layoff. In addition, he's also going to hold individual meetings with each employee and go over their particular situation and explore their particular options with regards to layoffs. So, again thank you, John. That's very nice.
So, the only problem we have with the layoffs is that the resolution that you're voting on tonight cites April 26, 2002, as the final date for this reduction of service. We request that these employees, well, actually... I understand after a conversation with Gail Schwandner that there are no funds for the continuation of these employees under those JTPA and the other - TANF - thank you, which is unfortunate. So, we request that these employees work as scheduled until May 29, 2002, which would allow the programs to operate uninterrupted until the end of the semester, to allow Mr. Tortarolo more time to place these employees and to deal with the ramifications of the bumping and that domino effect. It would also allow employees more time to seek employment elsewhere, if necessary. That's it. Thank you in advance for your consideration of this request.

President Clark: Shannon, we do have on the consent agenda, we do have a request under personnel to withdraw 5.2 and 5.3, so, do I have a motion on the balance?

The following items were part of the Consent Agenda

Rejection of Claim
Reject the claim presented by attorney Saku E. Ethir on behalf of his client, George Maycott, with regard to an incident that occurred at the Liberal Arts Campus on September 28, 2001.

It was moved by Member Uranga, seconded by Member McNinch, that the items on the Consent Agenda, with the exception of 5.2 and 5.3, be approved and authorized.

Member Thorpe: Would you go over that one more time? It was too fast for me.

President Clark: We're holding out of that, withdrawing item 5.2 and 5.3.

Member Thorpe: From consideration this evening?

President Clark: No. Just to hold them out at the request of Mr. Collins who wants to speak to these two items before we act on them.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

5.2 Classified Personnel
Vic Collins: I requested that Agenda Item 5.2 be pulled because we've had a last-minute change affecting one of the employees that's listed under Medical Separation. I am requesting that the Board approve Agenda Item 5.2, with the following modification: On page 8 of 8 of that agenda item, under Medical Separations, the third name on that employee list be deleted.

It was moved by Member Polsky, seconded by Member Uranga, that Agenda Item 5.2, as amended, be approved and authorized.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

5.3 Resolution, Reduction of Classified Service
Agenda Item 5.3 The recommendation is that the Board of Trustees adopt Resolution No.032602B, Reduction of Classified Service, 2001-2002.

Vic Collins: 5.3 was requested to be removed from the Consent Agenda because, as Shannon indicated, HR does have a series of concerns whenever we bring to you layoff actions of any employee. Even though we prepared this agenda item as late as yesterday and today, there has been some work done, and we are requesting that 5.3 be approved, with a deletion on page 1 of the background information, the Child Development Site Supervisor-0.25 FTE position and then on the resolution itself, under "BE IT RESOLVED" and indicating a series of positions, that "0.25 FTE in the classification of Child Development Site Supervisor" would also be removed.

Member Polsky: So moved.

Vic Collins: And we are requesting the approval of this. As Shannon points out, this is a case where 2001-2002 moneys, the current year, are not sufficient to retain the positions. The legal notification is a 30 day per layoff action and, while I regret to say that we will continue to examine options to bring this to you at the point in time at the next Board meeting which will be April 23, we would be looking at how we pay for these funds and we're talking about the potential of spending District funds to keep a federal program in effect. And I'm sorry I cannot make that recommendation that you do so.

President Clark: Let me ask you - on individuals that are hired in these soft money categories - is it indicated to them that they may have some difficulty holding that position because it entirely depends on funding?

Vic Collins: Yes. When any specialized categorical program, whether it be these that we're talking about here in terms of federal dollars filtering through CalWORKS and TANF and some of the others, or some of the other categorical grants that we receive moneys on, we do make it clear that these positions are contingent on the receipt of adequate funds to retain them.

Member Thorpe: Are they given a written document of some kind in their orientation and so forth to that effect? And, if so, is it possible we could get a copy?

Vic Collins: I can't say it's being done in one hundred percent of cases, Darwin, but we do go through it with them when the employees are brought on board.

Member Thorpe: I'd like to try, and I don't know if it has a chance, but, I'd like to move that the effective date be moved to May 29 for these positions.

Member McNinch: We have a motion on the floor that needs…

President Clark: I didn’t recognize the motion.

Member McNinch: Oh. Ok.

Member Polsky: I moved approval.
Vice President Uranga:  These funds. When do they run out and what are we looking at in terms of a timetable for these individuals who have to vacate the positions.

Vic Collins:  We're looking at a timetable that before the end of April they would be...

Vice President Uranga:  The moneys would be expended.

Vic Collins:  Moneys will be expended in terms of funding these positions and what we're looking at is by that time they have to be assessed for their bumping rights where applicable and given that notification. The initial notification is elimination of these particular positions under the TANF program; but, if they have bumping rights into other positions, HR will be working and that will go into effect so that the day that these positions finish, they will be in another assignment.

Vice President Uranga:  So we're looking at taking care of these individuals by the 26th of April.

Vic Collins: Correct. If they have the bumping rights.

President Clark:  Ok, is there a motion?
Joan Bradshaw:  I have only a motion. I don't have a second.

Member Thorpe: I'd like to move and make a substitute motion to include all of the foregoing and moving the effective date to May 29.

Member McNinch: I disagree.

President Clark: Is there a second?

Member Polsky: We have to have a second.

President Clark: (There was no second.) It dies for lack of a second. Ok, do we have a motion on the resolution?

Member McNinch: So moved.

Joan Bradshaw: I'm sorry. Member Polsky already moved.

Member McNinch: Ok, I'll second it then.

President Clark: Any further discussion?

Vice President Uranga: I just want to say that it's tough and I know we've mentioned it before that when you have classified positions in soft money programs, I don't like that kind of situation and it's unfortunate that we're here and dealing with the situation now. Perhaps under future grant moneys that are going to be used to hire individuals to operate under those funds, that we could look at an alternative way of filling those spots so that we don't have layoff situations like this and/or make it more clear to the individuals who are there that there's a potential for layoff. I hate to see anybody always hit the bricks.

President Clark: This is always a problem when you get into these grants that you have a choice of getting into and too often the federal government or the state government doesn't do anything subsequent to that and we've started programs and unfortunately if you could use soft money just for capital it's fine, but you wouldn't be able to hire individuals for any period of time. That's the great fault that we have with these grants that are approved that are from the federal and state government, they're just not consistent. It's the risk that you take and probably in the long run we benefit more people by accepting the grants, but we still have that loss at the end.

Member McNinch: I understand that - is it L.A. Harbor? - contracts out these positions. I think that would really be a slap in the face to our unions if we were to contract out these positions.

President Clark: I'm not sure that legally we're able to do this.

Vic Collins: No. In the situation that we look at, is a fact that some of these grants are specifically written in a way that you hire people to deliver the services. TANF is a good one. CalWORKS is another. And what you're doing is you're looking at adding staff specifically to deliver the service. We also have other grants that are developed by faculty, by administration, of one-year, two-year, and three-year duration, or the Title III program that we had here before which was five years, as is the current Title V program, where you know you have a specific duration of these and we work with developing the process whereby you're providing the service, you're providing the employees to provide that particular service through them and the assignments that they're given; but, also knowing that at the end of it you will be losing the position or, in the case of Title V, looking at absorbing some of those into the District classified service. So it is something we do try and keep track of, but unfortunately we do have services that will call for hiring employees and potentially facing a layoff situation. We try to minimize it but it's the reality of soft money.

Vice President Uranga: I think that we need to look at some of these programs in terms of their permanence. I mean if it's going to be a program that's going to be around for a while we should look at ways of institutionalizing a program. We can use soft moneys to get going but then institutionalize it with the hard money so that we can transition these people into the classified service for permanent job with the benefits and everything that is attributed to the classified service. I think that's an option.

Vic Collins: We also have to do that as well.

President Clark: How much exposure do we have in Partnership for Excellence? Or has that been mostly capital?

Vic Collins: We're in the process of evaluating that because of some discussions going on in Sacramento about discontinuing those funds and we do have a number of classified positions and a couple of faculty positions that are funded through those PFE dollars.
Vice President Uranga: So, we're not seeing the end of this.

Vic Collins: No.

Member Thorpe: Mr. Uranga, I think, is very correct in his analysis. A lot of districts in fact have foregone soft money from federal programs and certain programs just for that reason. I've always had, in my long years in the community college system, a disaffection for soft money, because they usually are spent on soft programs which we probably shouldn't have had in the first place. And if we should have, as Mr. Uranga pointed out, then they should be funded with hard. Thank you, Mr. Uranga.

President Clark: We have a motion before us. Madam clerk will you call the roll?

The motion carried, Members McNinch, Polsky, Uranga, and Clark voting aye; Member Thorpe voting no.

ACADEMIC SENATE (Title 5, Section 53203)
No report.

SUPERINTENDENT-PRESIDENT
Superintendent-President Kehoe: Just a short report. Mr. Uranga and I met with Alan Lowenthal in his office. We both serve on the Educational Advisory Panel for Assemblyman Lowenthal. We expressed our concern over the cut in funds of matriculation, faculty development, and CalWORKS to him. We asked that they consider not specifying programs that would hurt our individuals coming into our community colleges or those we train to go to work, but that they, if there must be cuts, allow some flexibility with those cuts. I don't know whether that will be possible under their scheduled cutbacks, but I think Assemblyman Lowenthal made it very clear that there would be cuts and that they would affect the community colleges, not only for this next fiscal year, but for the year after that. So I just wanted to bring that message. We are very active with our assemblymen and senators and trying to advise them.

President Clark: Jenny Oropeza is going to chair the budget committee in the Assembly.

Superintendent-President Kehoe: Yes, she is.

President Clark: She'll be in a position to be as helpful as possible.

Superintendent-President Kehoe: There are many of us in the community colleges that have been having discussions with Jenny.

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
Sabbatical Report
Elvia Mieras, Dietetics instructor, reported to the Board on her recent sabbatical. She said that the purpose of her sabbatical was to update her knowledge in the fields of Dietetics and Food and Nutrition. She mentioned that the courses she teaches prepare students to work as dietary supervisors in the health care field. She felt that it would be beneficial to her students to return to industry to see what was currently in practice.
She visited several health care facilities, acute care hospitals, long-term care facilities and extended acute care facilities and a unified school district kitchen.

She also used her sabbatical to develop an on-line course for her students and LBCC and she gave a short presentation to the Board on this course.

President Clark: On an on-line course, do you have the option of speeding that up or is it fixed.

Elvia Mieras: No. It's fixed. It's not self-paced, keep on going. I have it similar to the way I offer the traditional class, and that's to keep them all at the same level.

Student Trustee Torres: So last semester was the first time it was on-line?

Elvia Mieras: In the summer of last year. I piloted it during the summer, which is a nightmare to do. I should have done it on a regular semester. It turned out really well. I started out with 20 students and I ended up with 15, which I was quite surprised. In the fall, I had 40 students that actually enrolled. The class was full, and I ended up with about 22 students. So, all in all, for an on-line course, I think it’s doing very well.

President Clark: Do you lose the students early?

Elvia Mieras: You lose them early. It's like a traditional class. They're either there... And what I found is that if they studied the blue buttons a lot, they knew what was going on. Just like in a traditional class, if the student is ready to go and they're looking at the syllabus and they see what's coming down the course they do well and if they leave it to the last minute, those are the ones who usually have trouble.

Member McNinch: I've got a comment. This is the template that our distance learning team put together. Wow!!

Elvia Mieras: They did this template and then the instructor builds in all their information. They made it quite easy. It's very user-friendly, for the instructor and for the student for the most part.

Member McNinch: That's really impressive.

Elvia Mieras: I think so too. I tried to do it two years ago when they were using an older software that was very complicated and I took a break. I said I'll wait until the easy stuff comes up. So, they named it quite appropriately, Easy Teach.

Member McNinch: It's fabulous.

President Clark: Thank you very much.

2001-2002 Second Quarterly Report
Gene Farrell: If you look at the quarterly report at midyear, it looks the same. I think if you look back five years, they're always within one percent of where they were the previous year. The only quarter that ever really gives you any kind of a picture is the fourth quarter, the final. There are so many variables of when something is reported, when something is paid, that they don't show the real picture until the final.

It was moved by Member McNinch, seconded by Member Polsky, that the Board of Trustees approve the 2001-2002 Second Quarterly Financial Status Report of the Long Beach Community College District and authorize transmittal of the report to the Chancellor’s Office, California Community Colleges.

Member Thorpe: Mr. Farrell, that FY01-02 column - that's an estimate to date column?
Gene Farrell: Yes.

The motion carried, all voting aye.

Bond Procedures
Gene Farrell: Probably everyone I've talked to says, "Ok, what do we do next?" Now that we've worked so hard and passed Measure E, the first thing, and we're working on that as we speak, is to prepare an application form for people who are interested in serving on the oversight committee. If anyone of you know anyone who is interested and meets the criteria, we will make applications available. They will be submitted to Human Resources and Human Resources then will screen them and make sure that they have met the basic criteria. Staff will forward the finalists to the Board for selection.

The next thing that we've got to do and we're also doing it at this time, is that we are preparing and RFP for an architectural firm. Many are interested in doing this, helping us develop an implementation plan. An implementation plan is very different than a master plan. An implementation plan is not a detailed architectural rendering of buildings and so forth. It's to help the college determine what project goes first and how it will be staged. There will be needs assessments. There will be a great number of meetings with the staff and so forth. This is probably something in excess of a year’s project. It's a big undertaking. We're also issuing an RFP for a civil engineer. We need to survey all the campus land. We need to do soil engineering to make sure there are no environmental issues and do core sampling. We need to do title searches. That's particularly true of the Pacific Coast Campus because of the road right of way that went through it. We need to know what, if any, restrictions we have in that area. That's what staff will do.

President Clark: Let me go back to the screening. If we're going to need to set up a committee to do the screening, not just HR?
Gene Farrell: No. They will be screened. I just didn't go into great detail. It will be a group headed by the president who will forward a set of finalists to you.

Within 28 days of the election, the County Registrar of Voters should send to us, and it should be any day now, a canvass of votes. All that is, is just a list of yes or no votes. The Board of Trustees then passes a minute order. In the minute order it says you accept those tallies. We forward a copy of that to the Department of Education and that's all we need to do legally. But, that starts a sixty-day clock. Sixty days from the passing of the minute order, you, the Board, have to establish your oversight committee.

President Clark: That's from the time we actually vote on the minute order.

Gene Farrell: From the day you vote on it, within 60 days.

President Clark: It isn't necessarily 28 days. It could be longer.

Gene Farrell: You can do the minute order any time. Now, the makeup of the committee by code is at least: one student enrolled and active in a community college support group; one member active in the local business community; one member active in a senior citizens' organization; one member active in a bona fide taxpayers' association; one member active in a support organization of the college, for instance, the Foundation; two members of the community at large appointed by the Board. Seven members.

President Clark: You can have more than seven.

Gene Farrell: You can have more than that.

President Clark: That's the minimum.

Gene Farrell: That's the minimum.

Vice President Uranga: In terms of those organizations and college support groups, can we add to that, in terms of other community based organizations?

Gene Farrell: Absolutely. This is just the minimum.

Vice President Uranga: Just the basic.

Gene Farrell: You must have these. You can add as many as you choose. Now, there are some things that you have to be to be qualified. He/She must be at least 18 years of age, reside within the district's geographic boundaries. The committee may not include any employee, official in the district, any vendor, any contractor or consultant of the district. And, committee members serve in an uncompensated capacity for a term of two years and not exceeding two consecutive terms. That's code.

The purpose of the committee is to inform the public concerning the expenditure of bond revenues. The committee is charged with reviewing the expenditures of revenue to ensure that they are in accordance with the limitations of Prop. 39. That's what Prop. 39 says - that's verbatim.

Lastly, any district that has passed a Prop. 39 bond must conduct annual - and these are different than our regular audits, that are external audits - they have to do a bond revenue audit. It's an independent audit, and it’s both a performance and a financial audit of the bond revenues and you have to do that until the bond proceeds have been exhausted. So you're going to be doing that for a lot of years. Now these are just some of the things that we have to start to put in place in the next sixty days. Then the real work will begin.

Member Thorpe: You say that any district that has passed a Proposition 39 bond. I don't quite understand that. The district passed Measure E, and under Measure E, apparently several bonds may be issued. Is that correct?

Gene Farrell: Actually, Prop. 39, we submitted our proposition, Measure E, as Prop. 39 qualified. All of the resolutions that we did, we did it as a Prop. 39. Prop. 39's big thing is that you only need 55% percent of the vote and one of the other significant parts of it is that you have to have an oversight committee. It has to be under $25 and a few other things, but we met all of those requirements. So ours was a Prop. 39 bond. We're governed by the rules under Prop. 39.

Member Thorpe: Yes. I understand all of that, but it says “has passed a Proposition 39 bond,” as though there is one Proposition 39 bond. Is that correct?

Gene Farrell: Any district that has passed a Prop. 39 bond does conduct...

Member Thorpe: Yes. But the District passed Measure E, which permits the letting of several bonds - Proposition 39 bonds. I don't think that's correct, is it?

Gene Farrell: Grammatically that may not be correct.

Member Thorpe: That's where I'm confused.

Gene Farrell: Maybe I need to have Steve, because he's the other grammarian here and he can explain it to you, but, our bond was Prop. 39. We can issue them all any time starting the day you pass the minute order. But they're not bonds. We don't issue bonds. An underwriter sells bonds on our behalf. But, if you had the election, held the election under Prop. 39 rules, you will have an audit and it's a separate audit. If it was not a Prop. 39, you don't need that.

Member Thorpe: I think if you put the word “authorization” in. We passed an authorization for a Proposition 39 bond, it's perfect. That's what we did.

Gene Farrell: If that makes you happy, that makes me happy.

Member Thorpe: I don't know. I like to tell my constituents something honest.

Gene Farrell: I think I'm missing something in part of what you're saying.
Member Thorpe: Well, yes. It looks like we passed a Prop. 39 bond and that's really not what we did. We passed Measure E, which was an initiative to authorize the District to let bonds under Proposition 39; unless I'm dead wrong about that.

President Clark: Generically it's a Proposition 39 bond.

Member Thorpe: No. No. There's nothing on the ballot that mentions a Proposition 39 bond.

Member Polsky: I would just like to say, I would like this Board to congratulate itself on placing the measure on the ballot and the overwhelming victory, and despite those naysayers, I think - was it a two to one or - I just think we should give ourselves a hand.

Member McNinch: Also to the students, because the night that I was calling, the place was full of students, who truly believed that this was the right thing to do.

Member Thorpe: That certainly straightens out the grammar.

President Clark: Let me ask you, in regards to the RFPs, how soon do you think you'd have those?

Gene Farrell: We’ll have them out within the next week or two. We have a draft of these that were done. We could have them on the street in the next week or two. We'll leave them out probably for 30 days.

President Clark: How are those going to be reviewed?

Gene Farrell: Both of those come back to Bill Flory's office and whatever group that he chooses, with the President, will review this.

Vice President Uranga: Which brings up, I guess, the following question in terms of those individuals that are going to be doing the review - they are not going to be themselves submitting RFPs?

Gene Farrell: Oh, they’ll be staff.

Vice President Uranga: I'm concerned in terms of the expertise that would be needed to determine the quality of the RFP in being able to meet our needs.

Gene Farrell: Bill Flory is probably as expert as anyone that I've met anywhere.

Bill Flory: I'd be happy to respond to that question as I understand it. So what's the process? How you select the people we want to work with us? My phone has been ringing off the hook with people who want to work for the District, since the announcement was made at midnight on March 5, that we successfully passed the bond. What we've done is ask everybody who has asked to send their information to the Purchasing Department. Denise and I are in the process right now of completing what we call the request for qualifications, that we'll send out to two groups: one, everyone who has asked that they be considered; and two, we plan to do an advertisement in the paper so that anyone locally who is qualified to work with community colleges on those kinds of things has an opportunity to request the information. We will also provide that information to them. They'll have 30 days to answer the questions and provide the information we've asked for. Then we will assemble a group to sit down and screen those and narrow it down to a half dozen or so. Then, sit down with Mr. Farrell and Dr. Kehoe and put together a committee that may have some more representation and faculty representation as well as we go through the final selection process as to who will help us with the implementation plan and to begin identifying architects who can start carrying projects over and dealing with some of the other professionals we need to work with. So, it will be a multi-faceted process. But, initially, we'll screen out those people who don't meet the basic criteria and get it down to a manageable group. Then we can set up additional interviews for them.

Vice President Uranga: I also would like the committee to take into consideration minority contractors, women-owned businesses, as well as minority-owned businesses. I think it's important for us to show fairness and equity in how we distribute some of these contracts out to these various vendors that we're going to be having.

Gene Farrell: It will provide a lot of work for a lot of people.

Vice President Uranga: Exactly, and I hope that at least we meet some requirements as far as being able to get women and minority-owned businesses to compete and to be awarded some contracts.

Bill Flory: Sometimes there is also a desire for the community to support local business and incorporate some of them. So what we'll be doing as we go through this process, we're also working on a process that allows us to move away from $15,000 bid limits and begin to do more internal cost accounting ourselves so we can raise the bid limits. And part of that will incorporate a policy that would address those issues that the District is committed to attempting to reach five percent local business and ten percent minority and women business enterprises so that at least there's an effort that moves in that direction. Unfortunately, because it is public works, folks need to comply with state law regarding bondability, and insurance and contractor's licenses, and things of that nature. And many people breaking into the business would want to do public works, but they can't meet the criteria that we have to enforce.

Gene Farrell: One thing we did mention, if we’re going to raise the bid, or ask you to raise the bid on it, really, it's only for the maintenance budgets. It's not for the capital projects budget. It is spelled out very clearly what they can be used for. And it was really designed for deferred maintenance projects. There's going to be a lot of that work going along with this bond.

President Clark: Let me ask. One RFP is for the architectural firm and they're going to do the implementation part, and that's likely to be a single firm?

Gene Farrell: Yes.
President Clark: You say it’s a year’s project. Do they spell out how much it's going to cost? Are we asking what their fees are for that whole project?

Bill Flory: That would be part of the second series of interviews that we go on to. The first portion would be just to qualify them to make sure that they are firms we want to do business with and whittle that group down. Then start working on moving them to the request for proposal process, away from the qualification process, to begin to establish a price for those portions. We'll also identify firms that we would want to take pieces that the successful implementation consultant decides are things that we should be moving forward with, or recommends that are things that we should be moving forward with, and we would have funds ready to go to begin to carry those through the design and construction process.

President Clark: In the process of doing this, do you need any expert individuals to help you or assist you on this evaluation? Or could we do it all in house?

Bill Flory: We can do it.

Member McNinch: I wear another hat and I'm a Community Development Commissioner for the City of Long Beach. Because of having that information, I will let you know that the Community Development Department, as well as the Economic Development Department, of our city, have lists of exactly what Roberto was speaking of and I think it would behoove us to make sure that an extension, a reach out, was done to those lists through the mail so they know that this is available. They may not qualify, but at least we've said, “You're in our city. You've already been helped. You seem to be doing well. Let's see if we can do business with you also.”

President Clark: That's a good idea.

Member Thorpe: Is the Board and administration going to have a kind of flow sheet as you go along, kind of indicating these steps and where you’re going and the progress monthly or quarterly?

Bill Flory: Yes.

President Clark: Are we going to go out within 30 days for these RFPs?

Bill Flory: Yes, sir.

President Clark: Any other questions? It’s been rather exciting. Everybody loves you. You're not the only one who's been getting phone calls.

Vice President Uranga: We've been getting phone calls too.

President Clark: That's why we wanted to take a look at the process.

ACADEMIC SENATE
Steve Wallech:
1. In preparation for the Plenary Session of the Academic Senate this Spring Break, I attended the Area D meeting on Saturday, March 23, 2002:

A. Area D is a regional body that represents about 20 community colleges from Los Angeles to San Diego.
B. We meet prior to each Plenary Session to review the proposed resolutions that will be discussed at the Statewide meeting, and we deal with any burning issues that might have an impact on our region.
C. At this meeting, therefore, we spent a great deal of time discussion the upcoming State Budget and its bearing on the community college system.
D. Accordingly, I had brought with me two resolutions passed by our local Senate on March 22 dealing with the proposed funding cuts in Matriculation and Faculty Development that I delivered to the Area D Meeting.
E. (These I have made available for your review at your leisure)
F. As a result of the discussion on the Budget, Area D Senators developed a general set of recommendations, which I would like to report to you this evening:
   1. First, we discussed cuts in college funding according to their probable vulnerability—
      a. CalWorks was considered the least vulnerable due to name recognition and a proven track record of sending students from school to jobs; few at the Area D Meeting felt that the Governor would keep these cuts in place
      b. Then, Matriculation was considered far more vulnerable because of the lack of name recognition; consequently, we thought that matriculation would need a concerted support effort.
      c. (Matriculation is the process by which the college tests and places students in courses that they have a chance of passing; it evaluates reading, composition, and math skills, while trying to determine potential educational or career interests)
      d. Finally, Faculty Development Funds was considered to be the most vulnerable because the public can easily mistake any conference funds for paid vacations.
      e. (Actually, Faculty Development is the funding source that finances most of the training that help our people stay current in their various fields).
   2. Accordingly, Area D decided that our members needed to support all Statewide efforts to write, propose, and argue for resolutions that reinstate these critically important funds.
   3. Hence, Long Beach City College offered the two I gave you this evening.
      a. The first deals with Matriculation, but matched four others submitted by the community colleges present at the Area D meeting.
b. They all used the same language, and hit upon the same points, as a Resolution submitted by the Statewide Academic Senate’s Executive Committee.

c. Hence we decided to keep these for a local mailing effort to influence our state representatives.

d. A second resolution dealt with Faculty Development funds, was written by Francis Shelby, and was sufficiently unique that we felt it should be edited so that it could be presented at the Plenary Session.

e. This we will do on Saturday April 6.

4. Then members of the Area D meeting argued that all our colleges had to develop their own local resolutions, if they had not done so already, and mail off copies to the Governor as well as to the Legislative Advocate’s Office.

5. Area D members also suggested that we make these resolutions available to our local governing Board hoping that if any one of you were so inclined that perhaps you could send them to our local legislators as well.

6. Furthermore, they recommended that I hand copies of these resolutions to these same legislators so that they would match my face with our Faculty’s request.

7. Still further, they suggested that I get in touch with our ASB president, or any other college wide student representative, and help to compose a joint resolution so that the voice of the students could be heard on these matters.

8. Finally, they closed with a recommendation that we try an Inter-Segmental Academic Senate Approach and include the CSU and UC Systems in this effort.

9. I plan on completing as many of these suggestions as possible.

10. This evening’s report is just a start.

11. Accordingly, this is the end of my report.

CLASSIFIED SENATE

Shannon Willson: The Senate has been most active in staff development this year and, again, through the efforts of Jacque Lang Wilvers, we just presented a workshop through AB 1725 funding on Interpersonal Communication. It was attended by 20 employees and there was a waiting list of 30.

On April 5 there will be Red Cross training. Twenty-two classified employees will be trained in first aid and CPR. There was a significant response to this workshop and we’re thinking the district may want to implement this training on a more extensive basis and possibly in conjunction with the Disaster Plan.
There is a distinct possibility that staff development money may be cut, as Steve was saying, so the Senate would like a commitment from the district to continue this benefit should this occur.

That’s the end of my report.

TRUSTEES COMMUNICATIONS

Member McNinch: I want to thank the administration and faculty and staff, and especially the students of Spring Sing. This is something that I look forward to every year, because I can't think of another night where I laugh so hard. It doesn't matter what the musical quality is. Our students are out there working together as groups and clubs and the international students, and they are enjoying each other and they are together in an activity that really bonds them together and forms friendships. And I just love it. So I want to actually just go on the record to say congratulations. What a great idea.

Now, the next meeting we have, there is a chance that it could be my last meeting. I don't want to do a swan song, but I do want to say I'm considering taking a full load of courses next year and running for Student Trustee. It's not that easy to get rid of me. On a light-hearted note, I'll give you a poem to end my part of the evening. Spring has sprung, Fall has fell, Summer is going to be here, and it will be hotter than usual.

Vice President Uranga: I noticed in our agenda packet, under 5.1, that we have a retirement of a long-time City College employee, Beverly Curl. I want to acknowledge her retirement and wish her very well. Give my regards to Beverly on that. When I was the recruitment officer for the City of Long Beach and I was recruiting police officers and firefighters, Beverly was very, very helpful in getting students to apply for positions with the City. She sponsored a job fair here for public safety positions and I was out here recruiting and she was extremely helpful and she’s done a lot of work, not only with the Long Beach Police Department and Fire Department, but other regional departments as well. I wish her well and a happy retirement.

I also wanted to acknowledge that there were two other faculty/staff members who received awards this past month: Phyllis Arias and Lou Anne Bynum received Women Helping Women Award from the Soroptimists, an event that was held two Saturdays ago and I congratulate them, as well.

Next week the city is going to be sponsoring a Cesar E. Chavez Celebration - Changing Lives. There’s a flyer here that our secretary is distributing. It is a whole week of activities. It starts on Monday, April 1 with the Cesar E. Chavez Celebration luncheon and the Hon. Bonnie Lowenthal, Councilperson, First District, and myself, will be emcees of that program. It is by invitation. So, call in, get your reservations. You see there is a whole week of activities that’s going to be taking place. I want to especially highlight April 3, “An Evening with Evalina Fernandez and the Screening of Luminarias.” “Luminarias” is an award-winning film by an upcoming Latina director and actress and I want to thank Dr. Merry for have the space at Dyer Hall at PCC to be able to sponsor this event and, of course, Dr. Kehoe for facilitating the whole project.
Hopefully we can get these out before Spring break. The event on the 3rd is an excellent event for our up and coming Theatre Arts students, both in the fields of acting and directing and filming. Evalina is going to conduct a discussion group after the presentation of the film and she will tell the audience what it took to make that movie and get it together, produced and distributed. Hopefully this will become an annual event and perhaps we could calendar this event next year.

Pauline Merry: I didn’t give a report, but I do want to let everybody know that the plant sale, the 30th annual plant sale, at PCC is happening as we speak. The yard is just gorgeous. Come on down and spend your money. They use the money wisely. They use it for scholarships and they do baskets over Christmas, so they don’t waste what they earn. Please join us.

Angelica Torres: I wanted to say thank you very much to Dianne McNinch for all of her support. You were there at the Spring Sing and I did forget to mention that our Spring Sing was great. The Sweepstakes went to JX for the fourth year in a row. Dianne, thank you so much for just being and always supporting us and to the rest of the Board for supporting us.

Member McNinch: I appreciate that very much. Thank you.

FUTURE REPORTS
4/23/02 - Energy Update

President Clark: I was just talking to President Kehoe and we had asked for a report on televising the Board meetings and didn’t see that here.

Superintendent-President Kehoe: We have it on our radar screen, even though it doesn’t appear here.

President Clark: But you don’t have it on the agenda.

Superintendent-President Kehoe: We’ll put it on the agenda next time.

PUBLIC COMMENTS (NON-AGENDA ITEMS)

At their request, members of the public will be given the opportunity to address the Board of Trustees on matters of general District business. This is the time for members of the public to speak and be heard and share their comments with the Board and for the Board to listen. Therefore, the public should not expect the Board to comment or respond to public comments. A particular position should not be inferred if there are no Board member comments during this time.
A total of five (5) minutes will be allotted to each subject, unless extended by the Board President. After receiving testimony, the Board may recommend placing such item or item(s) on the agenda of a future meeting or referring the item(s) to staff for a report. (There were no comments.)

ADJOURNMENT
President Clark adjourned the meeting at 6:05 p.m. The next regular meeting of the Board of Trustees will be held on April 23, 2002. The first order of business will be adjournment to a closed session, as needed. The Board will reconvene in open session at 5:00 p.m. in Dyer Assembly Hall, Building FF, Pacific Coast Campus.
