REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Committee Reports

There were no Committee Reports.

STUDENT TRUSTEE

Angelica Torres: Good afternoon. My name is Angelica Torres and I am excited and honored to be a member of the Board of Trustees serving as student trustee for the Fall 2001/Spring 2002 school year. It is pleasure to see those of you whom I have already met from the conference at Monterey Bay. I look forward to meeting the rest of the Board. I am eager to learn more about my position and about the Board. At the conference in Monterey Bay I asked a lot of questions. I was very fortunate because in the student trustee workshop I was the only new member. The other student trustees were either outgoing or in their second term. I was able to ask away without a worry of taking up too much time. I picked up a lot of information. Again, I look forward to a great year with all of you.

PUBLIC COMMENTS ON AGENDA ITEMS

At their request, members of the public may address the Board of Trustees on any item prior to or during the Board's consideration of that item. A five (5) minute time limit will be allotted to each speaker, with a maximum of twenty minutes for each subject, unless extended by the Board President. (There were no comments.)

Sabbatical Reports

Michael Avila presented the following information on his sabbatical which was used to complete course work in vocational education:

Gerry Eldred: The purpose of my sabbatical leave was to develop curriculum for use in teaching advanced level composition courses, specifically ESL 33 and 34 in the English as a Second Language Department.

Before I focus on the project, I would like to thank the members of the Board and the administration present today for the opportunity to take a sabbatical and to “take a rest” as the word connotes. This opportunity to rest fortuitously followed a period of convalescence from a serious illness in the summer and fall preceding my sabbatical. My physical and spiritual selves were quickly strengthened as a result of time to focus on my health and well being. Assisting with that recovery was my wonderful husband who I met here at LBCC while we were students in 1957-58. Now fast forward 42 years: While on sabbatical in Spring 2000 we traveled to Italy where we were enthralled by the ancient ruins of Rome and where we saw Pope John Paul conduct Easter Sunday Mass in St. Peter’s Square. The latter was truly an emotional high point. While traveling in Umbria and Tuscany, we explored numerous medieval villages and ventured to the Island of Elba to walk through the winter and summer palaces where Napoleon was exiled. I am a Francophile, having been to France seven times, so that island visit was a highlight of the trip.

Now for the “real report.”

A requirement of a sabbatical leave is a tangible product. I have two, one of which is on file in the LBCC library, that being:

- Curricular activities and assignments for teaching ESL 33 and 34, advanced level composition courses that prepare non-native speakers of English for mainstream English. Included are copies of essay and summary writing assignments, related readings, and Internet research activities. These newly developed assignments were put to good use this past year when I taught ESL 34X, a computer-assisted instruction course. Students were particularly receptive to the requirement of using the Internet for researching a topic and finding support for a particular essay.

- Another aspect of that course was the reading, discussion and literary analysis of short stories by John Steinbeck. I selected this author as a result of traveling to Northern California during my sabbatical and en route visiting the relatively new Steinbeck Museum in Salinas. That visit revitalized a personal interest in the literature of Steinbeck. At the conclusion of the semester, several students told me how much they enjoyed that aspect of the class, and several were introduced to Mr. Steinbeck for the first time.

- The second product, which I will demonstrate shortly, is a multimedia software program for summary writing. This program will serve two purposes in the ESL department:

  1. It will reinforce the concept of writing a summary and paraphrasing—both of which are academic skills. Summary writing is a requirement of all levels of ESL composition courses, ESL 54, 56, 33 and 34.

  2. Even though our department writing courses are sequential in content, many students begin studying in the ESL program at various levels and have not been taught to write a summary. Thus, this program will provide supplementary practice for individual students having difficulty with summary writing skills.
Another potential use for this program could also be for students in all academic areas where summary writing is required and extra practice is needed.

Program Development
- The program was co-developed by The College Multimedia team, including Amit Schitai, Multimedia Specialist
- Cece Sandler, Graphics Design Specialist
- Monica Mravec, Program Developer

I am the “content expert” and wrote the paragraphs and the accompanying activities. The material in the courseware was pre-tested in ESL courses prior to production and adjustments were made based on the results of students’ responses, similar to item analysis of a test. Several ESL colleagues were consulted as to level of difficulty and practicality of some of the activities.

I wish to thank those colleagues and students who assisted with the testing and evaluation of the courseware.

DEMONSTRATION (Preface): This program could be used by an instructor in the classroom following a presentation on principles of summary writing. Or, it could be used in a computer lab as an independent study program, but faculty input is needed at some point.

FORMAT: Weekly Digest Magazine. Student has the role of a newly hired employee who will write summaries of longer articles for the table of contents (show contents).

A variety of academically appropriate topics are included and each topic has a different activity:

Green House – A paragraph; students choose the correctly summarized paragraph. Whether they choose the correct or incorrect version, they are given feedback. The incorrect version includes a statement with the types of errors.

Early California – Three types of errors students often make in summary writing: Omission (must look in the original paragraph), Copying, and Oversimplification.

Hale Bopp Comet – Involves extrapolation of the main and supporting ideas based on Who, What, Where, When, Why (click on the correct part of the sentence).

Modern Communication – Paraphrasing and vocabulary are emphasized in this activity. Student must drag the appropriate word or phrase to correctly complete the sentence.

Altered Food – Involves ordering of ideas, main and supporting ideas. This is a reading skill as well as writing. Student must look for clues such as pronoun reference and signal phrases which serve as transitions between ideas.

Bicycles – At this point students will read a paragraph and then write a summary of that paragraph. Upon completion, a model summary appears against which students can compare their own writing. At the conclusion of this activity, instructors have a couple of options:

1. In a computer lab with a server and an overhead projector, the instructor could access the student-written summaries and critique them on the spot.
2. Or, have the students print their summaries, critique them and discuss them individually.

Future Plans
An audio component will be added, providing a scenario for the Weekly Digest in which the “editor” will give the newly hired employee a task. Oral feedback will also be added, telling the employee when a mistake has been made or when a successful response has been provided. In the fall, I will show the program to the ESL department faculty and use it with students in my ESL 54 class. I will also invite other department instructors to use it in their composition courses. Based on their feedback and evaluation, I will make any needed adjustments. I also plan to develop new modules with different topics.

Thank you for your time and attention. It was a pleasure being here and sharing my sabbatical experience.

TRUSTEES COMMUNICATIONS
Member McNinch: I would like to thank Student Trustee Torres. On her trip to Cancun. She brought back half of a pair of salt and pepper shakers for me and since she will be returning to Cancun this summer, she has promised to bring back the other half because she has learned that I collect unusual condiment dispensers.

NEW BUSINESS
President Clark: One item under “New Business.” We have reapportionment which we need to finish up, probably about the middle of August. There’s not a great deal of movement with regards to the districts. We’ve hired Jack Humphrey. We will need to have a special meeting sometime, and I’m suggesting maybe the fourth Tuesday, if that’s agreeable, at maybe 5 o’clock in the afternoon. It shouldn’t take much time. We’ll get the maps in the meantime and we’ll take action on it. Is that an appropriate date?

(There was consensus by the Board). O.K. if that’s agreeable, we’ll set that up for July 24, late in the afternoon. Jack Humphrey can be there to answer any questions. And then Trustee Uranga and myself will sit as a committee to evaluate it and ask for suggestions.

Superintendent-President Kehoe: Dr. Clark, our Board Secretary will be missing. She is going to take a vacation. If we can keep it to one item, we can prepare the packet.

President Clark: That’s the only item we have.

Member Uranga: Dr. Clark, is there a schedule that’s been done that tells us when we have to have this to the appropriate bodies for final resolution?

President Clark: The best information we have is about the middle of August is when the county would like it. It’s the same time the city’s is due, not that it’s going to be enacted until next year, but they’ll be having so many of them. You can imagine the number of districts that are doing this and they want to have them as early as they can just simply for the convenience of having enough time to do it. I don’t think we have a major problem because the amount of change is not particularly great. There are some differences, but nothing that should be too great.

Member Thorpe: Dr. Clark, I was just going to say at the special meeting will we take action at all?

President Clark: Yes, we’ll take action. That’s the purpose of the meeting. In the meantime, we’ll have maps to look at.

Member Uranga: In addition to the reapportionment that we’re going to be reviewing and approving that night, are there also going to be financial considerations that we have to look at in the reapportionment process? Ballots? Elections? City Clerk or County Registrar’s Office?

President Clark: No, just the approval of the map.

FUTURE REPORTS:
9/11/01 - Report on Student Surveys
9/25/01 - Report from the Eligibility of a Two-College District Committee.

PUBLIC COMMENTS (NON-AGENDA ITEMS)
At their request, members of the public will be given the opportunity to address the Board of Trustees on matters of general District business. This is the time for members of the public to speak and be heard and share their comments with the Board and for the Board to listen. Therefore, the public should not expect the Board to comment or respond to public comments. A particular position should not be inferred if there are no Board member comments during this time.

A total of five (5) minutes will be allotted to each subject, unless extended by the Board President. After receiving testimony, the Board may recommend placing such item or item(s) on the agenda of a future meeting or referring the item(s) to staff for a report.

(There were no comments.)

ADJOURNMENT
President Clark adjourned the meeting at 6:10 p.m. There will be a Special Meeting of the Board of Trustees on July 24, 2001, at 2001, Building I, Liberal Arts Campus. The next regular meeting of the Board of Trustees will be held on August 28, 2001. The first order of business will be adjournment to a closed session, as needed. The Board will reconvene in open session at 5:00 p.m. in Building I, Liberal Arts Campus.
