Career Opportunities

This field of concentration, with an emphasis in Newspapers/Magazines or social media, provides a basic program for students interested in careers requiring journalistic training, such as newspaper or internet reporting, magazine or free-lance writing.

The emphasis in Public Relations provides a basic program for students interested in careers in any aspect of public relations and in writing and editing in-house or websites or social-media platforms.

The Publication Specialist emphasis provides a basic program for students interested in learning to produce a variety of publications including newsletters, brochures, websites, proposals, social-media platforms and house magazines.

The Certificate of Achievement provides access to entry-level employment in a variety of journalism related fields. These include newspapers, magazines, web sites, newsletters, social-media platforms and press relation offices.

The Photojournalism Certificate of Achievement provides students with the ability to learn the entry-level skills necessary to embark upon a career in the news online and documentary photography field. It includes emphasis in practical applications leading to career advancement.

Program Mission and Outcomes

The journalism program prepares students with a body of knowledge and a system of inquiry, scholarship and training for careers in which they are accountable to the public interest for their knowledge, ethics, competence and service; to members of society, clients or consumers for their competencies and the quality of their work; and to employers for their performance.

Outcomes:

- Gather and prepare material accurately and fairly while meeting deadlines.
- Apply teamwork skills to publish a newspaper, magazine, or website.
