ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS
ON EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EEO)

3001.1

Board Policy 3001 reflects the District's commitment to the principles of equal employment opportunity and promotes the value of having a diverse workforce. Diversity in the academic environment fosters cultural, social and civic awareness as well as mutual understanding, cooperation, democracy and free expression of ideas. The District is committed to the principle of equal employment through a continuing equal opportunity employment program. The District's policies, regulations, and practices are fully described in the LBCCD Equal Employment Opportunity Plan, which is incorporated into this administrative regulation by reference. This plan is maintained on the LBCCD website and may be viewed through the following link:
