

4014.            POLICY ON STUDY ABROAD RESIDENCY COURSES

Reference: California Education Code Section 66015.7
California Administrative Code Title 5, Sections 55220

Recognizing the growing trend of global interdependence and the need for international understanding, Study Abroad Residency Classes shall be offered as an additional method of instruction. Within Board established budget limitations, the Long Beach Community College District supports residence classroom experiences abroad for the unique opportunity provided students and faculty.
