Long Beach Community College District Personnel Commission's "Rules and Regulations of the Classified Service"

The Long Beach Community College District recognizes the importance of an individual's health in the learning process through its college goals:

"To encourage the development of attitudes, knowledge, and skills that promote physical and mental health."

In order to enhance the education process, the Long Beach Community College District provides fee-supported student health services organized for the purpose of mitigating or removing health-related barriers to learning, and the promotion of an optimal level of wellness among the student body.
