CITY COLLEGE

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

Long Beach City College's Administration of Justice program is well respected in the region and affords students many paths to careers in both the public and private sector.

LBCC's Administration of Justice faculty have a combined experience of more than 100 years in law enforcement, security, corrections and the courts. The Administration of Justice Program at Long Beach City College combines top quality education with real world examples of how these concepts and theories, learned in the classroom, can be practically applied in the field.

A Long Beach City College Associate Degree in Administration of Justice will provide students a solid foundation that will prepare students for the transition to a four-year college or university.

A Certificate of Achievement or Accomplishment can prepare students to enter directly into the workforce in several Administration of Justice fields.

Classes offered in the Administration of Justice major at LBCC are designed to prepare students for the following degrees and certificates:

- Associate of Arts Degree
- Certificate of Achievement: Administration of Justice
- Certificate of Accomplishment: Administration of Justice
- Certificate of Accomplishment: Criminal Forensics
