

LONG BEACH CITY COLLEGE

BLACK

HERITAGE MONTH 2020

RISE: THE CIRCLE

FRI., FEB. 21 • 3 P.M. – 5:30 P.M. • H-103, LAC

Be empowered and encouraged through real conversations about blackness and black excellence. Through the strength of your voice and personal stories, join the CIRCLE where you can hear and be heard. All are welcome to celebrate and participate in the soulful event. BBQ will be served.

RISE: BLACK VOICES

GUEST SPEAKER: SHAQUILLE BREWSTER

Join us for a conversation with NBC News Political Reporter Shaquille Brewster as we continued to celebrate Black Heritage Month 2020. Shaquille will be discussing his journey to NBC News and the role African Americans will play in the upcoming presidential election.

THURS., FEB. 27 • 2 P.M. – 4 P.M. • HORTICULTURE GARDEN, PCC

Shaquille Brewster will be speaking at the heart of the Pacific Coast Campus – the Horticulture Garden. Join us for an afternoon of music, inspirational story-telling and the art of C. Adrienne Johnson. Refreshments will be served.

THURS., FEB. 27 • 5 P.M. – 7:30 P.M. • P BUILDING, LAC

Shaquille Brewster wraps up his day at LBCC at LAC. Join us for an evening of music, soul food, conversation and the Black Voices Exhibit.

RISE: “HONORING A DREAM”

FRI., FEB. 28 • 11 A.M. – 12:30 P.M. • P BUILDING COURTYARD, LAC

Join us for an intimate conversation with Ambassador J. Steven Rhodes. He served as the former ambassador for Zimbabwe and was a key contributor in establishing the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. national holiday. Come hear how ethics and leadership have shaped his life's work.
