WELCOME

Congratulations to the Long Beach City College Class of 2023!

Today is about more than wearing a cap and gown to receive your degree or certificate; it's about a whole new world of opportunity opening for you! Whether you are transferring to a university or entering directly to the workforce, please know that LBCC is so proud that you are now part of our alumni family, and we know that you will represent us well wherever you go.

As part of the Class of 2023, you likely started your LBCC journey during the COVID-19 pandemic. Your class had to "pivot" in every direction – from in-person, to remote, to hybrid and to back in-person. What might have once made you doubt yourself or your chances of completing your goals, has now made you twice as formidable. Your unmatched ability to adapt to changes will only make you stronger in all of your future endeavors. You are living proof of the possibilities that come with perseverance.

On behalf of our faculty, classified professionals and managers – thank you for staying the course and not giving up! We are honored that you chose to share this important phase of your life's journey with us, and we want you to know that LBCC will always be your home. On behalf of our LBCC campus community, we join your family and friends in celebrating YOU on your accomplishment today.

Again, congratulations and all the best for your continued success!

Sincerely,

DR. MIKE MUÑOZ

SHAQUILLE BREWSTER

He was a Forbes 30 Under 30 honoree, and covered the 2022 midterm races, after having assignments on the past three presidential campaigns. In 2020, Mr. Brewster followed Bernie Sanders' presidential run as an NBC News political reporter. Prior to his move on-air, "Shaq" was a general assignment producer for the network. He began his journalism career as an associate producer for Hearst Television, and also has reported for the Associated Press and MTV News. He graduated summa cum laude with a degree in broadcast journalism and political science from Howard University.

SARAH FLOYD

VALEDICTORIAN

The life of LBCC's 2023 Valedictorian, Sarah Floyd, has had dramatic transformation. She grew up facing social and academic challenges, eventually falling into a world of addiction and abuse.

In 2019, knew her life needed new direction. Her son entered foster care while she received assistance from the Long Beach Rescue Mission, and they were reunited a year later.

Enrolling at LBCC in 2019, Sarah still wasn't sure college was right for her. She blossomed as a student in the midst of a global pandemic, reaching the top of her class in Human Services. With a 4.0 grade point average, she plans to attend the University of Southern California, and knows her future will include helping others. And we know her story is an inspiration for us all.

ALEXANDER HERNANDEZ

As your 2022-2023 Student Trustee, it has been an honor to be the representative of students' voices. It has been an true privilege to advocate for my fellow students by working to ensure that their journey went as smoothly as possible. I have grown to cherish this community, and wherever my journey takes me, I will continue to represent LBCC.

Class of 2023, sharing this memorable occasion with all of y'all brings me a joy I can't describe. Embrace this moment with your loved ones or those who motivate you for greatness, because this is the culmination of YOUR hard work and dedication. As you continue your our journeys, utilize all the resources provided to you, don't hesitate to ask for help, and find the groups that support your continued ascension. Thank you, and Go Vikings!

PROCESSION

In the procession of faculty, administration, and staff, the various types of gowns, hoods, and tassels have a meaning. The wide-sleeved gown and the black tassel indicate a Bachelor's Degree. A Master's Degree is shown by the slit-sleeved gown and a black tassel. The velvet-trimmed gown and gold tassel denote a Doctorate.

The colors on the inside of the hood represent the college or university granting the degree; the color of the hood trim denotes the school from which the person graduated. The academic attire varies for those with degrees from foreign universities.

For students, black caps, gowns, and red and white tassels signify individuals who are receiving Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degrees. They also wear hoods of red, white, and black signifying LBCC colors.

Black caps, gowns, and red tassels signify individuals who are receiving Career Certificates from specific occupational/technical areas which provide training in job skills.

Students wearing white robes are the selected Class Marshals who help to lead in the graduating class.
