High School Articulation Credit By Exam Terms & Conditions

Eligible high school students can earn college credit for courses through an agreement between the high school and Long Beach City College. To get started, students must complete the enrollment process below by the end of April. If they pass the college's exam, their grades will be posted by the end of August.

1. Apply for admissions to LBCC online through CCCApply and have an active application before taking exam.
2. Complete and submit this High School Articulation Credit By Exam Form before testing.
3. Complete the required high school course with a passing grade (see below "Current LBCC High School Articulation Agreements").
4. Receive high school instructor recommendation to take the exam.

IMPORTANT: Submitting this High School Articulation Credit By Exam Form gives consent for LBCC's Admissions & Records Office to post credits earned on your LBCC Transcript.

NOTE: Students are not required to post LBCC grades on their high school transcript. Consult your high school counselor about how college credit affects your record.
