

ENGL 1 vs ENGL 1 PLUS

The chart below is designed to help you understand the major differences between English 1 and English 1 PLUS Support and make an informed choice about which course is right for you based on LBCC's recommendation and these course descriptions. Use this information when you meet with your counselor to discuss your education plan.

English 1	English 1 Plus Support
<input type="checkbox"/> ENGL 1 (4 transfer units) = 4 hrs/wk	<input type="checkbox"/> ENGL 1 (4 transfer units) = 4 hrs/wk
<input type="checkbox"/> Transferable to UC/CSU as ENGL1	<input type="checkbox"/> Transferable to UC/CSU as ENGL1
<input type="checkbox"/> Academic reading of non-fiction and fiction with in-depth analysis and complex concepts.	<input type="checkbox"/> Academic reading of non-fiction and fiction with in-depth analysis and complex concepts.
<input type="checkbox"/> Academic writing of aprox. 6,000 words based on analysis of assigned texts	<input type="checkbox"/> Academic writing of aprox. 6,000 words based on analysis of assigned texts
<input type="checkbox"/> At least one academic synthesis essay using a complex thesis, advanced organizational techniques, research, and citation.	<input type="checkbox"/> At least one academic synthesis essay using a complex thesis, advanced organizational techniques, research, and citation.
	<input type="checkbox"/> ENGL 896 (2 non-transfer units) means 2 additional hours of support from your instructor
	<input type="checkbox"/> More college-success strategies and guidance on campus resources
	<input type="checkbox"/> An embedded tutor available during class
	<input type="checkbox"/> Smaller groups and more individual attention
	<input type="checkbox"/> More in-class help with reading and writing
	<input type="checkbox"/> More peer interaction
	<input type="checkbox"/> More revision strategies

STUDENT PERFORMANCE EXPECTATIONS

The rigor and performance expectations are identical to first year Composition courses taught at state universities or private colleges.

The major difference between the options is that the ENGLISH 1 PLUS Support (ENGLISH 896) meets for one additional hour, twice a week. This extra time is a part of the 2-unit corequisite support course designed to help students be successful in ENGLISH 1.

MORE INFORMATION

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

ASSIGNMENTS

ENGL1 SUPPORTS