

Learn English for FREE!

Long Beach City College's FREE English as a Second Language (ESL) classes are offered in several locations throughout the community. These noncredit classes are open to people of all levels as a way to improve speaking and/or reading and writing skills in English.

Reading Skill for ESL Students

These reading skills courses are designed to teach ESL students how to read, understand what they read, and build vocabulary. They also teach students how to read and understand sentences, paragraphs, and passages without needing the assistance of a dictionary.

English for Everyday

These courses are designed to prepare students for success in academic and vocational courses and programs offered by LBCC, as well as workforce preparation. These courses emphasize the mastery of productive grammatical features, and comprehension of spoken and written standard North American English.
