

School of Health, Kinesiology, Science and Mathematics Nursing and Allied Health Department

Date: ____

LATEX ALLERGY POLICY

lame:	Last	First	Middle	Date:
mail:	LdSt	riist	Middle	Student ID:
elephone:			Age:	Sex:
cicpiione:
			erious healthcare problem. Ex can Nurses Association, 1997).	perts have described it as a disablin ises may range			rubber or by inhaling powder from late m anaphylaxis (New York State Nurse
1997 alert pub general popula an increasing	lished by the Nation and 8% to 1 number of ente	ational Institute of Occupa .2% of regularly exposed hering nursing and health	ational Safety & Health (NIOSH nealthcare workers are sensitize	ised the prevalence of latex allergies. It is indicated that about 1% to 6% of the distribution of the dis
In light of this related to lates	0 0.	m, the Nursing & Allied H	ealth Department has develop	ed the following form and informatio
_		epartment Health Evalua g the form must specifical	_	ory which indicates Latex Allergy . Th
Follow-Up: In those instan	ces where a late	ex allergy has been indicat	ed, the following actions should	d be initiated:
FacultFacult	y/Student will bo y/Student will bo	e encouraged to wear a M	on latex allergies. eleration of sensitivity with rep ledi-Alert bracelet as suggested will be kept on file in the Nurs	by NIOSH.
Agency Conta		e for sharing information a	about the latex allergy with the	respective clinical agency.
I have read and	d understand th	e policy concerning latex	allergy.
☐ I do not ha	ave any allergy t	o latex, or caution. I	hereby release	Long Beach City College,	its Board of Trustees, officers	atex and I agree to exercise appropriat , administrators, and employees fror ong Beach City College or in any clinica

Signature: