

LONG BEACH CITY COLLEGE FOUNDATION

Document Retention and Destruction Policy

Purpose and Background

In accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, which makes it a crime to alter, cover up, falsify, or destroy any document with the intent of impeding or obstructing any official proceeding, this policy provides for the systematic review, retention, and destruction of documents received or created by the Long Beach City College Foundation in connection with the transaction of organization business. This policy covers all records and documents, regardless of physical form, contains guidelines for how long certain documents should be kept, and how records should be destroyed (unless under a legal hold). This policy is designed to ensure compliance with federal and state laws and regulations, to eliminate accidental or innocent destruction of records, and to facilitate the LBCC Foundation's operation by promoting efficiency and freeing up valuable storage space.

Electronic Documents and Records

Electronic Documents will be retained as if they were paper documents. Therefore, any electronic files, including records of donations made online, that fall into one of the document types on the above schedule will be maintained for the appropriate amount of time. If a user has sufficient reason to keep an e-mail message, the message should be printed in hard copy and kept in the appropriate file or moved to an “archive” computer file folder. Backup and recovery methods will be tested on a regular basis.

Emergency Planning

LBCC Foundation’s records will be stored in a safe, secure, and accessible manner in the Foundation office or in the LBCC document storage facility. Electronic documents and financial files that are essential to keeping the LBCC Foundation operating in an emergency will be duplicated or backed in accordance to the LBCC data retention system.

Document Destruction

The LBCC Foundation’s executive director is responsible for the ongoing process of identifying its records, which have met the required retention period, and overseeing their destruction. Destruction of financial and personnel-related documents will be accomplished by shredding.

Document destruction will be suspended immediately, upon any indication of an official investigation or when a lawsuit is filed or appears imminent. Destruction will be reinstated upon conclusion of the investigation or litigation.

Compliance

Failure on the part of employees to follow this policy can result in possible civil and criminal sanctions against the LBCC Foundation and its employees and possible disciplinary action against responsible individuals.

Shredding/Destruction

The LBCC Foundation requires that any items or documents containing personal information such as name, address, phone number, etc. that are assigned to be destroyed be shredded or marked out (redacted) with permanent ink before being placed in the garbage.
