Probation and Dismissal FAQs

Are academic probation and disciplinary probation different?

Yes, please visit the Admissions and Records, or read further for issues related to Academic Probation. For issues related to disciplinary probation please contact the Office of Student Affairs as listed in the online phone directory.

What is academic probation?

A student is placed on academic probation when they do not make satisfactory academic progress. This generally means one of two things. First, the student grade point average falls below 2.0, or secondly, the student fails to complete fewer than 50% of the classes in which they are enrolled.

For a more specific explanation, please refer to the Academic Policies section in the College Catalog for the specific academic year. The catalogs are found online here.

Can students enroll in classes when on academic probation?

Yes, but the student course load is limited to 12 units.

What do I need to do if I am on academic probation?

You should have received a notification from the Counseling Office that informs you of your situation with the next steps for Counseling Intervention. Please follow the steps on this letter.

If you did not receive a letter, first check your online student account to make sure that the college has the most recent address for you. Please update it if it is incorrect.

Secondly, please contact the counseling office via the online phone directory to schedule an appointment.
