IN PERSON EVENTS

Nurturing Positive School Culture and Climate to Facilitate Anti-bias & Social Justice Education (In-person 2-day event, November 2022)

Session Dates: 11/9/22 & 11/10/22 from 8:30-3:00 at the Museum of Tolerance

Through this experiential workshop, participants will focus on cultivating a school climate that supports the goals of anti-bias and social justice education. Expert facilitators and special guest speaker Dr. Terrence Roberts, one of the Little Rock Nine, will engage in dialogue with participants on grappling with our difficult history and perspectives on achieving racial justice in our schools today. Participants will leave with access to extensive hands-on free resources to bring the vision to life. Link to Register

Courageous Conversations to Facilitate Learning and Action About Equity & Justice (In-person 2-day event, March 2023)

Session Dates: 3/15/23 & 3/16/23 from 8:30-3:00 at the Museum of Tolerance

In this workshop, participants will gain insights and strategies for navigating challenging conversations in schools. Using experiential/interactive you will explore what makes a conversation difficult, the opportunities they present, and the mindset and skills to lead them with better outcomes. Participants will walk away with free toolkits and teacher guides for proactively implementing conscious conversations with students and with adults in community contexts. Link to Register

Los Angeles County
Office of Education

Special thanks to Dr. Jamaal Williams and the Los Angeles County Office of Education for extending these opportunities to our Long Beach City College Community. This innovative collaboration elevates the need to work across institutions and educational systems to produce more cohesive learning experiences for California's student population and aligns with the Social Justice Intercultural Center's mission to foster a more inclusive, equitable, and affirming campus experience at LBCC.
