FEATURED EVENTS:

Register for Zoom events at <https://linktr.ee/lbfutureteacher>

Making the Most of Fieldwork – February 28 at 5pm on Zoom

The path to becoming a teacher is marked by multiple opportunities to get in the classroom and work with a mentoring teacher, students, and school community. This time often allows for reflection and implementation of core concepts and self-determination. This can also be a stressor in planning schedules and responsibilities. Fieldwork can lead to lifelong connections, job opportunities, and moments that craft our outlook on the profession. Our workshop will allow for discussion of approaching the task with a growth mindset, building relationships & planning.

Outdoor Education Future Teachers Club Trip – March 30-April 2 in Santa Barbara

The Future Teachers Club is hosting a weekend-long trip to Santa Barbara to engage in numerous outdoor education activities, mindfulness, discussions and most of all, fun! Lodging and transportation will be provided. We have limited spots so if you'd like to attend contact Melanie Levy at Mlevy@lbcc.edu.

Mindful Time Management for Future Teachers – May 23 at 5pm on Zoom

The COVID-19 pandemic has brought new stresses and worries to our already complicated schedules. Join the Future Teachers Club as we walk through adjusting to the shifts and responsibilities in our life. Using holistic approaches, we will prepare for scheduling time for studying, fieldwork, work and most importantly, rest. We will also discuss accommodations and application to classroom teaching (virtual and in person).

Ethnic Studies Summit III – April 21, 2022. All day free event at LAC. RSVP coming soon to LBCC website calendar.

The History/Social Science and Reading & Teacher Preparation Departments are excited to host the third Ethnic Studies Summit for educators and interested students who wish to learn more about how to apply an ethnic studies lens and framework to classroom and community applications including teaching. Open to students of all majors, faculty and staff, and community members. Includes catered lunch for 1st 80 RSVPs.

General Event Information
